

Do not remove the law that provides the "Do Not Call List." It has been such a relief and pleasure not to be bombarded with those annoying calls. Let companies find a way to sell their products another way that isn't so imposing. I was even getting calls during family gatherings at Holiday Dinners and I was so appalled. I am glad the law was enacted and it works like a charm.